

ARTbeat – July 20-Aug 18

Salar is pleased to present for its first Bethesda exhibition a unique and exciting art show that brings together an international line-up of five progressive artists, who all individually reflect the contemporary art scene of today. Their practices rely on exploratory techniques with material, form and sound in various mediums ranging from photography to video art. ARTbeat brings together a select group of artists who share an impulse to re-imagine and re-script our relationships to everyday objects and characters.

Curated by Mariano Ugalde, this exhibition promises an intriguing sample of the art being produced in three different regions of the globe and will expose the viewer to artwork that is exhibited in major art fairs around the world.

Participating artists: Felix Angel (Medellín), Gastón Ugalde (La Paz), Scarlett Hooft (Amsterdam), Sonia Falcone (Santa Cruz) and John Fitzgerald (New York).
